

Nutrition. Education. Financial Empowerment.

Job Announcement

Part-Time Delivery Person (2) Community Kitchen of West Harlem

FoodChange (formerly Community Food Resource Center) is dedicated to improving the lives of New Yorkers through nutrition, education and financial empowerment. Founded in 1980, the agency first focused exclusively on feeding New York's hungry children and adults. Over time, FoodChange expanded our services to address the underlying financial barriers that compel people to participate in these emergency meals programs. Our initiatives include increasing people's income and purchasing power through access to benefits and vocational skill-building. In further pursuit of our mission, today we aim to make nutrition and wholesome eating a daily reality for all New Yorkers.

We are seeking 2 part-time Delivery Persons who will be responsible for delivering dinner meals to Home-Bound Seniors and Consumers and pantry bags to Community Residents Monday thru Friday.

The Delivery Person will assist with the assembly of the daily dinner meal packages and ensures that the packaged meals are protected to meet or exceed all food safety requirements with the use of the thermal holding bags. The delivery person needs to ensure that the proper handling is maintained to prevent cross contamination. Completion of daily delivery records (consumer signatures and time of delivery) is a must. Providing safe transport and delivery of meals to consumers and maintain proper sanitation/cleanliness of thermal transport bags each day upon completion of the delivery route. Individual will provide pantry bags containing a nutritious supplement of food items for weekends and on days that the kitchen is closed. Providing pantry bags to consumers that ensure appropriate dietary restrictions when required. Other duties assigned: dishwashing, dining room sanitation, and food serving assistance as circumstances warrant.

QUALIFICATIONS

The physical demands associated with this position are representative of those an employee encounters while performing the essential functions of a delivery person. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Schedule: Monday – Friday

FoodChange is an Equal Opportunity Employer

Please send resume to:

FoodChange-Human Resources Department

39 Broadway, 10th Floor

New York, New York 10006

Or e-mail to: jobs@foodchange.org / fax to: (212) 616-4988